

GA P&F 2023 Half Year Report

Our Big Rocks...

- ✓ Done – Funds have been formally allocated to the playground rejuvenation – initial design has been received by the school, and this will be shared within the community by the end of August
- ✓ Doing – the P&F executive are already working on the P&F strategy for 2024 to identify what our big rocks may be
- ❖ Aiming High – facilities development to be completed by end of 2024

Engaging our community...

- ✓ Done – we have run the Welcome Barbecue, Movie Night, the Mother's Day Stall and Mother's Day Coffee for our mums.
- Doing – planning for Angels on the Oval is underway..., as well as our Father's Day stall & Fathers day sausage sizzle, and drafting our P&F survey which will be shared for completion in term 3
- ❖ Aiming High – look out for information on our annual P&F event on 4th November – a must attend night in the calendar

We are all of us...

The work of the P&F is the work of all who volunteer their time and expertise to support the school and community, including those who attend our meetings to provide valuable input and feedback.

Supporting our school...

- ✓ Done – funded in class readers ($10k), lectern ($2.5k), playground toys ($1k), leadership program($3.5k), Tuckshop freezers ($2K) and working capital for the Tuckshop.
- Doing – we have committed to spend on Iconography to support the GA Way roll out, ongoing sporting team sponsorship (ruby & netball), supporting world teachers day and year 6 graduation gifts
- ❖ Aiming High – we are looking at how we can revitalise the Tuckshop to offer more choice in a financially sustainable manner

Responsibly managing our resources...

- ✓ Done – we have spent $27k of our committed funds, providing needed resources to the school and students. We have also improved our financial transparency to enable quicker decision making and spend where needed
- Doing – acquired a card payment terminal, to streamline payments at P&F Events and reduce the burden on volunteers to bank cash
- ❖ Aiming High – by spending on our big rocks, we can further deliver value to our community.

Thank you for your contributions.
